

rePurposeSM Program

A sustainable furniture disposal solution rePurpose, a better world solution from Herman Miller affordably relieves companies of no longer needed facility assets (furniture, supplies, equipment) and avoids traditional landfill destinations by working to redistribute the assets to schools, nonprofits and health facilities that are in need of additional resources to conduct their work. Through Herman Miller's rePurpose program, customers realize the following benefits:

- Immediate Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) and environmental solution
- Fully managed, turnkey service
- Non-selective removal of all assets
- Fully documented processes
- Internal public relations/marketing
- External public relations/marketing
- Charitable donation tax receipts for full market value
- Removal of risk and liability through transfer of title
- Doing the right thing
